ASWA Mesa East Valley Chapter Welcomes New Board

The Mesa East Valley Chapter of the American Society of Women Accountants installed the 2012-2013 Officers, Directors and Committee Chairs on June 26, 2012. The Chapter is pleased to announce its new board: Shelby Williams, President; Diane Hewlett, Treasurer and Website; Brie Keckler, Secretary; Sherry McGlade, Immediate Past President, Newsletter & Programs Director; Kathryn Dunn, Assistant Programs Director; Laura Mangan, Membership Director and Website; Pat Donahue & Susan Rayman, Educational Foundation Committee Leaders, Sherri Fieber, Activities Committee Leader; Anna Von Straussenburg, Community Service Committee Leader; Cathy Knudsen, Career Services Director; and Dorothy Ashley, Member Relations/Bylaws. With the effort of these volunteers, the ASWA Mesa East Valley Chapter is looking forward to another successful year of growth, leadership development and community service.

ASWA Phoenix Chapter President Marcy Maslov installed the new board members during the June membership meeting. The installation event included a special recognition for perfect attendance award winners including Dorothy Ashley 26 years, Laura Mangan 7 years, Sherry McGlade 2 years, Shelby Williams 2 years and Karen Peterson 1 year. Outgoing Chapter President Sherry McGlade presented the Outstanding Member of the Year Award to Laura Mangan for her support of the chapter's successful Regional Conference.

The American Society of Women Accountants is a national professional non-profit organization whose mission is to enable women in accounting to achieve their full personal, professional and economic potential and to contribute to the future development of their profession. ASWA members are from various areas of accounting including public, private, government and academia and many have attained professional certifications. Benefits of ASWA membership include personal and professional support, scholarships, job referrals, leadership opportunities, management skills development, and quality CPE through local, regional and national meetings and conferences.

Formed 26 years ago, the ASWA Mesa East Valley Chapter continues to provide value to its members with education and leadership opportunities and create a positive impact on the community with VITA and financial literacy programs. The Mesa East Valley Chapter meets the fourth Tuesday of the month for networking and educational sessions at the Landmark Restaurant in Mesa. For more information on membership, the 2012-2013 program calendar and other chapter activities, please visit www.aswa-mev.org.
